

Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Shirley Leimbach began her employment with Children's Home Society on January 21, 1973, and will retire on January 21, 2011; and,

Whereas, Shirley has been vital to the success of Children's Home Society by fulfilling her duties of 38 years in the capacity of business manager; and,

Whereas, Shirley started her career as one of two employees in the administrative office and is now one of thirteen employees; and,

Whereas, Shirley takes pride in her work and has been an excellent supervisor, co-worker, and an inspiration to all who have met her; and,

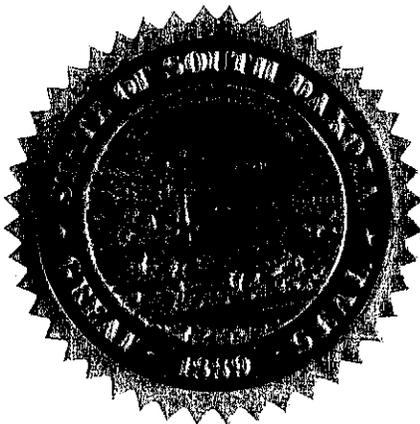

Whereas, Shirley's retirement plans include spending time traveling with her husband, Mike; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 21, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues at Children's Home Society in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of January in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
